

About Cara Murphy

Cara Murphy is the practice's office manager and paralegal. Along with maintaining the day-to-day operations of a busy law office, Cara works with attorneys on every facet of their cases from internal investigations, to discovery and trial. Cara frequently works on electronic discovery matters in civil cases, acting as a liaison between attorneys, clients, and vendors to create and maintain document review platforms to assist in the review and production phases of discovery.

Cara has assisted on multiple trials, including a second-degree murder case, a federal conspiracy and misbranding case, animal abuse as well as an arbitration regarding an employment and contract dispute.

Cara graduated magna cum laude from Bentley University in 2011 with a Bachelor's in International Studies and minors in Business and Law. She obtained a paralegal certificate from Boston University in 2013. She currently attends the evening division of Suffolk University Law School with an anticipated graduation date of May 2021.

Cara received an Excellence in the Law award, given by the Massachusetts Lawyers Weekly in 2017 for paralegal work.

Education

Bentley University,
magna cum laude

Boston University
Paralegal Certificate

Memberships

Boston Bar Association
American Bar Association
Student member